April 3, 2020 - For Immediate Release

Concert for Hunger will air across the state via radio and online video streaming on April 10, 2020

(Illinois) Regional Media, one of Illinois' largest locally owned and operated media companies, announced a partnership with the Illinois Broadcasters Association and Feeding Illinois to bring hundreds of thousands of concert lovers together in the Inaugural Regional Media Concert for Hunger event.

The Concert for Hunger will feature performances by many Illinois local and regional artists, and a few artists that will be released in the days to come. Most will broadcast from their own homes, filmed with their personal cell phones, cameras and audio equipment, to ensure the health and safety of all involved. The Concert For Hunger will air on Good Friday, April 10th, from 12:00PM-5:00PM (cst) across hundreds of radios stations, social media pages, and be will be streamed live at ConcertForHunger.com

As we unite throughout Illinois to combat hunger and food bank shortages in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Regional Media encourages viewers and listeners of the Concert for Hunger to contribute monetary donations to bolster dwindling food supplies at local food banks.

Corporations and individuals looking for a way to make a difference in the lives of neighbors experiencing food hardship can contribute at: www.ConcertForHunger.com

The goal of the Concert for Hunger is to raise awareness and dollars so food banks can purchase the food they need to adequately serve the hungry in their local communities. There are eight independent food banks serving 102 counties in Illinois, all of which are represented by Feeding Illinois.

For musicians and media outlets who would like to get involved, visit www.ConcertForHunger.com and sign up today. Submissions are due by Wednesday April 8, 2020 at 4:00PM (cst).
